TEN QUESTIONS FOR VOTERS

Ten questions for voters to answer in advance of Election Day:

1—Why are the Kings of Wall Street supporting Mr. Hughes?

2—Why are the great financial interests which favor a Central bank, in substitution for the Federal Reserve system, supporting Mr. Hughes?

3—Why are the high protective monopolists who prepared the schedules of the Payne-Arich tariff for Mr. Hughes?

4—Why is every enemy of American neutrality for Mr. Hughes?

5—Why are all advocates of armed intervention in Mexico for Mr. Hughes?

6—Why are the trusts and organized greed in every section of the United States for Mr. Hughes?

7—Why are the heroes of military conscription for Mr. Hughes?

8—Why is every political reactionary and bourbon for Mr. Hughes?

9—Why is every enemy of industrial reform for Mr. Hughes?

10—Why is every boss and political graftor in the Republican party for Mr. Hughes?

The Babies

Lincoln Springfield, London editor, was thinking to an American correspondent

"I know a regiment," he said, "where the subalterns are so young that not one of them is able to raise the mustache required by etiquette."

"A trainful of privates from this regiment swaddled back to quarters late one night singing the popular ditty: 'Another little drink won't do us any harm.'

"As they passed the officers' bunks the guard on duty crowded them: 'Shut up, you noisy fools or you'll wake the war babies!'

"I Levy shipped 25 head of 2-year-old steers to Geo. Kirkpatrick of Macomb, Ill., Friday. They brought 63.4 cents.

D.K. Yowell recently sold mules amounting to $7135 and still has 12 of the larger ones left. Mr. Leonard of Webster City, Iowa, and Mr. Saunders of Clarence were the buyers. He also sold $1000 worth of hogs and $1500 worth of sheep.

Mrs. J. L. Watts and her mother Mrs. Collins of Brookfield came in yesterday to visit relatives and friends.

A DEMOCRATIC RECORD

John P. Gordon, Present State Auditor, and Nominee for Re-election, Collects Fees in Excess of $75,000 as Compared With $1,645 Collected by His Republican Predecessor for a Corresponding Period.

Missouri never had a more efficient and painstaking official than John P. Gordon during the last 20 months from Jan. 1, 1910, to September 1, 1912, he has collected in fees and paid into the state treasury $75,463.94. His predecessor, a predecessor in the same corresponding 20 months collected only $1,645 in fees and paid into the state treasury, $1, this item alone Gordon has saved to the state $73,820.94 more than his Republican predecessor. His office was recently examined by expert accountants from Chicago, and their report disclosed the fact that of the millions of dollars passing through his hands, every cent has been honestly and properly accounted for.

JNO. P. GORDON
STATE AUDITOR

What is the record of his Republican opponent, who is the present County Clerk of Warren County? His office also was recently examined by expert accountants and their report disclosed the fact that he, as County Clerk, has illegally retained more than $500 which belongs to the county and which he has refused to pay
